

Vermont Daily Transcript.

TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 1868.

Local Items.

BUTTER.—To-day was a busy day in our market, and a large amount of butter was brought in. Prices ranged from 28 to 32 cents per pound, which it will be seen is above the last week's prices. But little cheese was brought in. Prices ranged from 10 to 14 cents per pound.

POSTPONED.—The trial of Miller the murderer, which was set for to-day, at Woodstock, has, on motion of the respondent's counsel, been postponed until the 9th of June.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Franklin County Sunday School Convention, it is announced, will be held at Franklin, June 8th, 9th and 10th, at the Methodist Episcopal Church.

A BIG EGG.—Mrs. Helen Nye, of Highgate, has sent us a hen's egg which measures 6½ inches in circumference one way, and 7½ the other, or longest way. This egg, the product of an enterprising Brahman hen, born in Vermont, is not related to the "Lay of the Last Minstrel."

NOT FOUND.—The Rutland Herald of this morning says that the bodies of the young ladies who went over the falls at Cavendish had not been found up to Monday evening, but that search was being constantly made, and that much excitement exists in the community there.

O. C. WAIT, of West Georgia, is growing a quarter of an acre of Early Goodrich, and an acre of Harrison potatoes. His sales of Early Goodrich, Glenson, Cuzco's &c., the past season embraced his entire stock and all he could get from other sources. He is also growing a large quantity of seed peas for Jas. H. Gregory of Marblehead, Mass.

A SIX weeks old Chester white pig from the famous breeding establishment of Thos. Baker, Esq., of Barton, found his way into our sty last Friday evening. Our neighbors, some of whom are fanciers in that line, unanimously pronounce him the finest specimen of the grunter family they have ever seen.

O. S. B.

A poor, inebriated young man, who claims to be a fourth cousin of Sen. Meade, and is probably that far removed from him, made a display of his inebriety, and his want of that useful garment, a shirt, on our streets to-day. His condition, whether sober or not, in respect to clothing, was such as to render him a fit object of attention by the police. We believe he received police attention from officer Downing, but escaped it so far as we know to-day.

OUR venerable contemporary asserted very properly in his last issue, that he "could stand the charge of stealing 'editorials bodily,'" but objects to being accused of appropriating our local articles. Nevertheless the fact remains that the Mass. has appropriated local articles from our paper, day after day, dressing them up more or less in its own language to cover the "respectable" appropriation, or "larceny." We do not object to this, as we said before. Nor do its readers. They want the best they can get, of course, through the medium employed. They welcome the "reaction," and hope for the "resurrection."

EDWIN W. KEMP, son of Enoch N. Kemp of this village, was stabbed at Galveston, Texas, on the 23d ult., and died from the effects of the wound on the 26th. His brother, John N., who communicates the sad intelligence to his parents says after receiving the wound he had the best medical aid in town and was kindly cared for, but to no purpose. John was with his brother at the time he was stabbed and came very near being killed himself. These are all the particulars that have thus far been received of the affair. Young Kemp leaves a young widow to mourn his death, he having married a few months ago.

RICHFORD.—We are indebted to the Sentinel for the following items:

We notice that the importers of live stock from the Province of Quebec are driving a brisk business this season. Hon. S. P. Carpenter, Deputy Collector in this town, informs us that 541 head of cattle, valued at $6,805, and 29 horses have been entered at the Custom House here. One dealer, Hon. H. D. Farrar, has paid over $1,000 in gold for duties on cattle imported by him during the present month.

The meeting of the Directors and Officers of the Union Agricultural Society will be held at the American House, in this town, June 6th, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. P. Goddard has bestowed extensive repairs upon the Union House, which improves its appearance much. From our own observation, and the testimony of others, we feel warranted in saying that "Park" is keeping a good house.

Have you seen Prangs Chromo? "Old Oaken Bucket," "Falconer and Bride."

State Items.

THE Republicans of Essex County meet in Convention at Guildhall on the 28th to nominate county officers.

THE Lamontle Newsdealer says: "The announcement of the failure of Belding, Keith & Co., London, bankers, has created considerable sensation in this community and much sympathy. It is hoped that part of the intelligence that imputes dishonesty to the partner Belding will prove incorrect. The despatches say that he has absconded, taking the available funds of the concern. In such cases first despatches are not always reliable, and before we believe that our young friend is guilty of such conduct, we shall demand further evidence."

SENATOR MORRILL was at his home in Stratford a few days last week.

DR. HENRY BOYNTON, of Woodstock, Henry Hall, Esq., Rutland, and E. P. Walton, of Montpelier, were on the 8th inst., elected resident members of the New England Historic Genealogical Society of Boston.

MEASURES are being taken to appropriately celebrate the 4th of July in Rutland.

PATENTS were issued to the following Vermonters for the week ending May 20th:

Martin M. Crocker of Rutland, assignor to self and Azro B. Allen, of same place, for improved railroad car.

A. J. Van Ornum of Hartford, for improvement in turning lathes.

Charles G. Miller of Brattleboro, assignor to S. M. Spencer & Co., of same place, for improvement in bench drills.

THE Free Press says: Conductor Phillips' train ran off a misplaced switch at Essex Junction Saturday evening and did not get back to the depot here till midnight. Among the passengers so delayed were Gov. Page and Supt. Merrill of the Rutland Road.

EUGENE, son of Parker Cross, was badly injured at Lane, Pitkin & Brock's mill Montpelier, June 1st, and came near being killed by a circular saw.

THE annual meeting of the Vermont Homoeopathic Medical Society will be held at the Memphramagog House, Newport, June 10 and 11.

CHARLES M. MAXFIELD has been appointed postmaster at Chester, vice C. H. Rowe, resigned.

Canadian News.

The Queen's Birth Day was appropriately observed at St. Armand Station. The celebration was gotten up, as we learn from the St. John's News, by the Phillipsburg Volunteer Company, which, under the direction of Capt. Smith and the other officers, invited the Clarenceville, Bedford, Dunham, and Frelighsburg Companies to join them. Adjutant-General McDougall and Lieut.-Col. Earle were present and reviewed the troops.

The "Phoenix," the new hotel at Dunham, is said to be among the finest in the Eastern Townships.

The News says: On Monday last, Mr. Emery Lamarche, of St. Johns, met with a painful, but fortunately not so serious an accident as might have happened from the same cause. Coming out of Mr. McGoggin's hotel, he held an old fashioned pistol in his right hand, full cocked, and on the act of raising it, the contents were discharged, striking his left hand, and carrying off his little finger and a portion of the hand. The pistol was only loaded with blank cartridge. The wound, which was dressed by Dr. Morehead, of course occasioned much suffering.

His Lordship the Bishop of Montreal and Metropolitan, has returned from Europe accompanied by Mrs. Fulford. The health of the latter is still critical. On Monday His Lordship was presented with a congratulatory address signed by the clergy of his diocese.

At the Consilium of the Romish Hierarchy lately held at Quebec, it was decided to divide the Ecclesiastical Province of Quebec into three: 1. The Province of Quebec, to include the dioceses of Quebec, Montreal, Three Rivers, St. Hyacinthe and Rimouski. 2. Ontario, of which Toronto will be the archiepiscopal seat. 3. The diocese of the Red River and the immense territories of the North West.

On Sunday afternoon Bishop Bourget of Montreal, laid the foundation stone of the New Catholic College on Visitation street, in presence of the Mayor, several members of the Corporation and over 3,000 people. A procession took place from St. Peter's Church to the new College, which was blessed with the usual ceremonies.

Montreal is to have a new Custom House. It is needed.

M. M. Tait, Esq., advocate, Richmond, was "ordained" in St. John's Church, (Church of England) Melbourne, on Sunday, the 17th of May, as Lay Reader, by the Bishop of Quebec.

THE POVERTY OF LONDON.—London is never tired of admiring its own vastness and wealth, its population, greater than that of many kingdoms; its trade, larger than that of India; annual addition of a new city to its extent and resources. It is well before the next hymn is sung to Mammon and his glory to remember this little fact: The number of London paupers relieved by legal alms on the last day of February in this year was 156,650. Add the professional beggars, the tramps, and the people who do not beg but remain dinnerless, and we shall find that London contains a population as great as that of Leeds with nothing to eat. The social cohesion must be strong which stands that strain.—London Spectator.

Personal.

Hannibal Hamlin, who is an excellent "stumper" has taken the stump for Grant and Colfax, and will do good service during the presidential campaign.

The late E. A. Chapin, formerly Superintendent of the Rutland and Burlington Railroad, had $15,134.61 insurance on his life.

The Free Press says that E. A. Stansbury Esq., of New York, formerly of Burlington, is secretary of the recently organized Homoeopathic Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York who offers insurance at reduced rates, to those who use the Homoeopathic practice, in their ailments.

Edwin M. Stanton, jr. confidential clerk of the Secretary of War, and chief clerk of the War Department, resigned on Thursday of last week.

The Newport Mercury states that the statue presented to Newport, R. I., by August Belmont, in memory of Commodore Mathew C. Perry, is to be placed in Truro Park, on the same site now occupied by the flag staff. Its cost, when completed, will be $20,000, and is a superb piece of work, and Mr. Belmont's arrangements are so far perfected, that the ceremonies incident to the unveiling of the same will take place about the 20th of June.
